Examples for different available Elements and Stylings

Text Variations

This is a sentence with a link. You can write bold text or italic text . An you can write more and more and more and more...
Do you like the color red? Or do you want to underline something? You can also overline something or line-through ~~something~~

This is a paragraph with 1cm space before. Can you see it? And a start indent with 1.5 cm too. It's all so beautiful!

So let's have a paragraph with a little space after... And an end indent to. I don't realy like end indents. But it's ok here

Lists

1. This is hopefully the first item
2. And this is the second icon with a lot fo text. To be perfectly honest, nonsense text. But a line break is not impossible
   - This is the first item of a nested list
   - And this is the second icon with a lot fo text. Have a look: This list is unordered[1]

First Key This is the definition of the first key and have you recognized, that this is a definition list?

Second Key This is the definition for the second key

Product	Preis
This is a row	This is a row
This is a row	Test

beautiful!

This is a footnote text